Brittney joined Der Manouel Insurance Group in 2016 after 13 years in the medical industry. During the last 5 years, Brittney worked in medical sales, including pharmaceuticals. Prior to that, she taught Anatomy and Physiology for 8 years within Fresno Unified School District, provided health education case management for the Fresno County Health Department, and also worked in the hospital setting at Valley Children's Hospital.

Brittney has worked with private practice physicians, government agencies, hospitals and large medical clinics, and understands the healthcare industry from both the consumer and the provider point of view, and looks forward to using that knowledge in the design of benefit programs that meet the needs of both employer and employee.

Brittney graduated from Fresno State with a Bachelor of Science degree in Health Science in 2000. She holds a teaching credential from Fresno Pacific University in Adult Learning/Health Occupations. She enjoys teaching and strives to translate that skill into her work with employers and Human Resource Managers as they create and manage employee benefit and compliance programs in the ever-changing landscape of healthcare and legislative mandates.

Brittney was born in Merced, CA. She has been active in the Autism Awareness community for the last ten years, and is passionate about autism research and advocacy for services that can improve the lives of children and adults on the autism spectrum.
